Brief description of the Transnational cooperation:

1. Problems to be solved (justification of the need of the transnational cooperation)

National Research and Development Institute for Electrical Engineering ICPE-CA is a national institute that carries out activities in the field of electrical engineering, located in Bucharest, Romania.

Taken into consideration that the Institute activity is fundamental and applied scientific research, in national and international context, with direct benefits towards the economy, we want to develop, in collaboration with universities abroad, the possibility for polish students to be able to perform the practice outlined in the Institute, on the latest equipment. Also, the institute has developed a Technology Transfer Centre which constantly pursue closer ties between enterprises, universities and research institutes, enabling the facilitation of technology transfers, from research to industry. Last, but not least, the Institute wants to support social economy development, human resource training or retraining and integration of human resource into many aspects of social life.

2. Objectives to be achieved

The development of those youngsters who work in the research labs and the young students who will be able to integrate in the research field.

The development of the collaborations networks and exchange information between science and business areas.

Informational campaigns for the know-how in the scientific area and for developing partnerships and communications.

3. Main transnational activities (as provisionally planned, to be confirmed with partners)

Organization of conferences, meetings and work-shops

Research activities

Doing practice in the Institute

Consulting, experience exchange

The development of new solutions and the implementation of the new solutions in other countries

The development of the collaborations between science and business areas

The development of the communication network

The transfer of know-how in the industrial area

³ See definition by size on Europa : http://ec.europa.eu/enterprise/policies/sme/facts-figures-analysis/sme-definition/index_en.htm

4. Planned outputs, deliverables, results of TNC; expected outcomes (effects)

The results will be the development of new solutions and the implementation of the new solutions in other countries, a tight collaboration between science and business areas, development of the communication networks and transfer of know-how in the industrial area.
